

SAVING AMERICA'S HORSES A NATION BETRAYED

Fine Art Auction

WIN A CUSTOM OIL PAINTING OF YOUR HORSE!

Hye Joung Tibby is an award winning Oil painter who primarily does portraits of people and Animals. In a remarkably short period time, she has become one of the top realist portrait artists in Southern California. Her brushstrokes on canvas reveal tight rendering of realism and also lose touch of impressionism. Her goal for every painting she creates is to make the subject come to life.

Hye Joung Tibby has strong love for animals especially horses. She recently painted portrait of 'Go Between' who is the winner of 2008 Pacific Classic. It was commissioned by Del Mar Thoroughbred Club.

Winning Bid will get custom 18 x 24 Oil Portrait

Learn more!

Horse lovers can qualify to win a custom oil painting of the horse of their choice.

Opening Bid $750

Donated Artwork is valued at $3000

www.hyejoungtibby.com

The above painting is entitled "Before the Race"
...By Hye Joung Tibby

Bidding begins Dec 12th and ends Dec 21st

Hye Joung Tibby is donating her work in support of helping to bring the film, "SAVING AMERICA'S HORSES A NATION BETRAYED" to completion. Bids will be accepted on line.

CONTACT EMAIL

www.savingamericashorses.org