Special Private Advance screening of “Saving America’s Horses – A Nation Betrayed” in Alexandria Virginia

Wild for Life Foundation (WFLF) is pleased to announce the special private advance screening of “Saving America’s Horses – A Nation Betrayed” at the upcoming International Equine Welfare Conference in Alexandria, Virginia. Filmmaker Katia Louise will present the film in person on Monday, September 26th to registered participants of the conference. Many cast members will also be in attendance for this special screening including Senator Mary Landrieu, former mayor Paula Bacon, Julie Caramante, Craig Downer, JoAnne Normile, Sonja Meadows, Susan Wagner, Laura Allen, John Holland, Senator Dave Wanzonried, Ginger Kathrens and more. “Saving America’s Horses – A Nation Betrayed” is a platform to over 40 of the world’s most renowned equine professionals bringing their voices to the world stage through cinema on behalf of ending equine cruelty.

Wild for Life Foundation is a 501 (c)(3) nonprofit volunteer based charity dedicated to saving and protecting animals.

The special private conference screening will follow the screen’s Canadian premiere scheduled to take place on Saturday, September 24th in Huntsville, Ontario. Filmmaker Katia Louise has been invited to present the film in Canada as part of the upcoming International Film North Festival with a filmmaker Q & A to follow. Representatives from the CHDC including Twyla Francois and Shelley Grainger will also take part in the lively discussion. CHDC founder, Sinikka Crosland underscores the importance of bringing this film from the U.S. to Canada because the problems exist on both sides of the federal border.
