FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Dec. 4, 2009

WFLF Humanion Films is pleased to announce that Steve Long of Horseback Magazine has joined the film production as a member of the Cast for Saving America's Horses A Nation Betrayed.

Texas investigative journalist Steven Long is an avid horseman and also serves as owner and editor of Horseback Magazine.

Steven Long has been a contributor to Western Horseman magazine and his work has appeared frequently in the Houston Press. Long began his career in radio but quickly moved to print. For most of 11 years, he served as editor and publisher of Galveston's In Between Magazine, an award-winning alternative weekly famed for its gritty investigative work. Steven and his adopted horse Façade have appeared on Animal Planet's "Animal Cops Houston." Façade is an SPCA rescue animal. Steven and his wife Vicki recently adopted Flying Algonquin, a retired race horse saved from slaughter.

Check out the Preview Trailer for SAVING AMERICA'S HORSES A NATION BETRAYED on the official film website and also on YouTube. The Preview Trailer presents the inspirational tone of the film while also serving to raise awareness for the CAUSE. SAVING AMERICA'S HORSES A NATION BETRAYED depicts a country divided and inspires great hope for the protection of all horses and burros. It's a tender yet honest look at the reality that our American horses are born into, the love, joy and respect they give us and in contrast, the complacent mindset of those who profit from the sordid practice of horse slaughter.

Production has also released a Series of Sneak Peeks which are available for viewing on the official film website and also on the Saving America's Horses Channel at YouTube.

Equine enthusiasts, humanitarians and animal lovers are requested to tell their friends and family about SAVING AMERICA'S HORSES A NATION BETRAYED. Donations are greatly needed to bring this film to completion. Please support this film and help us to save America's equines. "We are their voice and they need to be heard" – Katia Louise
