The Wild For Life Foundation (WFLF), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit charity dedicated to protecting, saving, and preserving wild and domestic equines, just recently announced its partnership in advocacy with the talented singer/ songwriter, Michele Vreeland. Michele Vreeland will be contributing and performing her inspirational music live at "Saving America's Horses A Nation Betrayed" screenings and special events.

WFLF and Equine Collaborative International (ECI) first teamed for the horses in 2022. "We are thrilled to have the powerful support of ECI as an active member organization to the International Saving America's Horses Coalition, as we continue to work together on behalf of the horses and burros," said Katia Louise, Wild For Life Foundation President, SAVING AMERICA'S HORSES A NATION BETRAYED, Filmmaker. "We are looking forward to presenting a whole new level of educational events together with ECI, geared toward raising the bar for both advocates and people from all walks of life."

"Cooperation is one of the cornerstones of ECI's mission. The film, SAVING AMERICA'S HORSES A NATION BETRAYED is masterfully and comprehensively done; beautiful, inspiring, and heartbreaking in its reality. We are very excited to collaborate with the Wild For Life Foundation, and promote this life-changing, life-saving work," added Barbara C Moore, Equine Collaborative International Board VP.

"We can't bring back those who are gone, but we can prevent the suffering & killing of future generations by raising awareness and telling their story. Please join me and Saving America's Horses by giving our horses & burros the voice they need. “We are on a mission to change the future for America’s horses and burros by compelling the change that’s needed for their permanent protection from slaughter and brutal government roundups,” added Katia Louise. “And that’s where the new SAVING AMERICA’S HORSES Gifting it Forward for the Horses Challenge comes in,” says Jay Coskie, Vice President, and Founding Director WFLF, WFL Humanion Films Development and Outreach Chair. “It’s one small way that people can make a big difference.”

Katia Louise, the international award-winning Director, and Producer of “Saving America’s Horses A Nation Betrayed”, said: “We’re honored to partner with ECI and the immensely talented Michele Vreeland who will be joining us as a featured entertainer in support of WFLF’s fundraising and awareness campaigns.”

Michele’s latest release, “Wild Horse” stands as a testament to her devotion to wild horse advocacy and her deep reverence for her Native American roots. The danceable version of "Wild Horse (Remix)" (which is on the "Wild Horse-Maxi Single") features ceremonial drumming and singing by The Wildhorse Singers, an indigenous Native American musical group based in Los Angeles.

“I am deeply passionate about preserving the majestic spirit of wild horses. My recent song, “Wild Horse” encapsulates the untamed beauty and resilience of these magnificent creatures,” – Michele Vreeland.

Michele Vreeland's musical journey is marked by notable milestones, including her song “On This Brand New Day” which became a staple on the hit TV show, American Idol. Michele’s music has garnered acclaim and nominations, including nods for "Female Singer/Songwriter Of The Year" by both the LA Women In Music Awards and The Los Angeles Music Awards.

“My aim is to not only entertain but also inspire, raise awareness, and unite support in our collective commitment of preserving the wild horse population and their habitats,” added Michele Vreeland.

"Education is the key to passing legislation for the preservation of wild horses and their rangelands," adds Katia Louise, filmmaker.
